Selection of All Star Teams

(Adopted October 2007)

Page 1

- The 11/12 team will be selected first, then the 10/11 year old team, then the 9/10 year old team.
- All Star Managers will be selected before any player selection takes place.
- All Star Managers may reserve up to two roster spots for any eligible players of their choice.
- All Star Managers may select their own children before any player selection takes place.
- All Major and Minor A managers must attend the selection meeting. If a manager is unable to attend, a league approved substitute may attend. Not sending a team representative to the selection meeting is cause for discipline.
- If a 10 or 11 year old player declines selection to any All Star team, they cannot be selected or added to any other All Star team.
- Managers may not nominate coaches until after all players have been selected. Coaches must be approved by the Board of Directors.
- If replacement players are needed, the All Star Manager will make the selections.

International Tournament Teams (11 and 12 year olds)

- The Major Division managers from each league will select the All Stars for their league (Minor A managers may observe).
- Managers must vote on the number of members on the team 12, 13, or 14.
- Managers will nominate players from their own team. Each manager may nominate as many of their 11 and 12 year olds as they see fit.
- Once nomination of players has been made, managers will be given the chance to talk about their nominee or remove the player from consideration. After all managers have talked about their player, a written vote will be taken.
- The Player Agent will count the votes. In case of a tie, the vote will be retaken. If a tie cannot be broken, the Player Agent will cast the deciding vote.
- NO MANAGER MAY CAST A VOTE FOR A PLAYER ON THEIR TEAM'S ROSTER.
- Only League Age 11 and 12 year olds on a Major Division roster are eligible for the International Tournament Teams.
- The 11/12 All Star managers and coaches must be managing or coaching a current Major Division team.
- Until the Little League mandated time the rosters are set, players may be called up from the 11 year old only team if a replacement is needed.
